A warm welcome to St Luke’s, whether it is your first time here or you are a regular worshipper.

Everyone is very welcome to receive Communion or a blessing. Please follow the directions of the sidespeople.

If it would be easier for you to receive Communion in your pew, please speak to one of the sidespeople. Gluten-free wafers (square in shape) are also available; please ask the priest when you receive Communion.

There is an induction loop system in the church for those who are hard of hearing. Hearing aids should be moved to the “T” position.

Collect
O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30. 9-14
Read by Ramani Leathard

The Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the Lord will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the Lord your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?’ Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?’ No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.
Psalm 82
1 God standeth in the congregation of princes:
   he is a Judge among gods.
2 How long will ye give wrong judgement:
   and accept the persons of the ungodly?
3 Defend the poor and fatherless:
   see that such as are in need and necessity have right.
4 Deliver the outcast and poor:
   save them from the hand of the ungodly.
5 They will not be learn’d nor understand *
   but walk on still in darkness:
      all the foundations of the earth are out of course.
6 I have said * Ye are gods:
   and ye are all the children of the most Highest.
7 But ye shall die like men:
   and fall like one of the princes.
8 Arise O God and judge thou the earth:
   for thou shalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

Second Reading: Colossians 1. 1-14
Read by R. Alexander Porter

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God’s will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10. 25-37
Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, O Lord.

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. ‘Teacher,’ he said, ‘what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ He said to him, ‘What is written in the law? What do you read there?’ He answered, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.’ And he said to him, ‘You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.’

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbour?’ Jesus replied, ‘A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, “Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.” Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers? He said, ‘The one who showed him mercy.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’

This is the gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

We welcome the family and friends of Orlando and Winifred Scholes, who will be baptized after the service this morning.

Please remember Orlando, Winifred and their family in your prayers.
Notices

Working Faith at the National Gallery
The final Working Faith group of the year, for those of working age, will be a special trip to the National Gallery. Jung Won Gu-Nicholls, a Christ Church congregation member and art expert, will lead a tour of the Gallery’s 14th-17th century collections of religion art. Friday 15 July at 7.30. Numbers are limited to 20, so please email Fr Sam (samhole@chelseaparish.org) to reserve a space, in case it proves necessary to limit numbers.

Coffee on the Portico
Due to the hot weather we are having, we are moving Coffee in the Vestry to Coffee on the Portico, so we can enjoy the much deserved sun. All are welcome to join. Thursdays 11.00-12.30pm

St Luke’s Choir—Three Peaks Challenge
Members of St. Luke's Choir will be attempting the Three Peaks Challenge on 6-7 August, tackling the three highest mountains in England, Scotland and Wales within 24 hours. They are fundraising for Tommy's, the baby charity, which provides vital support to parents suffering loss (miscarriage, stillbirth and neonatal death). Part of the team are Ruth and Will who will walk in memory of Lowri, their daughter, stillborn in July 2021. You can donate to the team at www.justgiving.com/fundraising/slc3peaks2022

TfL Bus Route Changes
TfL has issued a consultation related to bus routes across London. Many of their proposed changes would impact significantly on many bus routes in Chelsea – in the King’s Road or South Kensington areas. In particular it would divert/shorten routes and make other changes to the 49, 211 on Sydney Street. In addition, the proposal would abolish the 11, 14 and 74 buses and make major changes to the 19 and 414 routes.
The SSDRA website has additional information on their proposals, as well as a link to their consultation survey. SSDRA will submit a response; however, it is important that individual members and residents also respond as TfL’s decisions will be influenced by numbers responding. You can respond by completing the survey – the link is available on our website here: https://www.ssdra.org.uk/bus-routes-in-chelsea/

In addition, Greg Hands MP, has created a petition against TfL’s cuts to Kensington, Chelsea and Fulham bus routes. If you would like, you can view and sign that https://www.greghands.com/campaigns/stop-mayor-khan-and-tfls-chelsea-fulham-bus-cuts

Vestry Food Bank
The St Luke’s food bank are in need of tinned goods, sanitary products and dry foods. If you are able to donate anything please could you bring it to the back of St Luke’s Church. Your support is very appreciated!
