READINGS

Collect

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: 2 Kings 5.1-3,7-15c

Read by Charles Combe

A reading from the second book of Kings.

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.' When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.' But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.' So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.' But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?' So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, 'Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 111

- 1 I will give thanks unto the Lord with | my whole | heart:
secretly among the faithful and | in the | con-gre | gation.
- 2 The works of the | Lord are | great:
sought out of all them | that have | pleasure there | in.
- 3 His work is worthy to be prais'd and | had in | honour:

- 4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his | marvel-lous | works:
that they ought to | be had | in re | membrance.
- 5 He hath given meat unto | them that | fear him:
he shall ever be | mind-ful | of his | covenant.
- 6 He hath shew'd his people the powe'r | of his | works:

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2.8-15

Read by Alexander Stewart

A reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy.

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 17.11-19

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

This is the gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Changes to Church Attendance for School Places

We are now only registering child attendance for school places at services on Sundays where we offer specific provision for children. In general, these services are: 10.30am at St Luke's; 11.00am at Christ Church; and the Family Eucharist at 9.30am on the first Sunday of every month at Christ Church. However, children are most welcome to attend the 8.00am BCP Eucharist at St Luke's and the 3.00pm Choral Evensong at St Luke's.

Noise In Church

We ask the support of parents to help ensure that all of our congregation is able to hear and join in worship. Is your child used to listening carefully at home, in nursery or in school, and could they bring these skills to church? How can they engage with the service – say, if they can read, by following along in the order of service? Would your child value time in the crèche, or a run around outside? Thank you for your efforts in teaching your children about our worship together, and for your attention to this act of care for our whole community.
