Welcome!

A warm welcome to St Luke's, whether it is your first time here or you are a regular worshipper. Everyone is very welcome to receive Communion or a blessing. Please follow the directions of the sidespeople. If it would be easier for you to receive Communion in your pew, please speak to one of the sidespeople. Gluten-free wafers (square in shape) are also available; please ask the priest when you receive Communion.

If you are new here, please introduce yourself to one of the sidespeople, identifiable by their name badges. They will be pleased to meet you and give you more information about our parish life. Please also stay behind after the service for refreshments.

Our main order of service is the coloured booklet. Hymn numbers can be seen on the front of this booklet and on the wooden board in church. The collect and readings can be read on the following pages of this booklet.

During term-time (except for the first Sunday of the month), children aged 3-11 are invited to leave the church for Sunday School after the Collect, returning during the distribution of Communion. Children in Year One and below should be accompanied by one parent.

There is an unsupervised creche for children aged 0-2 in the vestry, with a video livestream of the service. Please speak to the sidespeople for details of how to access this room.

There is an induction loop system in the church for those who are hard of hearing. Hearing aids should be moved to the "T" position.

The Collect

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world: grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross we may triumph in the power of his victory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Jeremiah 31.31–34

Read by Owen Ryan

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, ‘Know the Lord’, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 51.1-13

Please join with the choir in singing.

Charles Stanford (1852-1924)

- 1 Have mercy upon me O God * after | thy great | good-ness:
according to the multitude of thy mercies | do a | way • mine
of | fences.
- 2 Wash me thoroughly | from my | wicked-ness:
and | cleanse me | from my | sin.
- 3 For I ac | know-ledge | my faults:
and my | sin is | ever be | fore me.
- 4 Against thee only have I sinn'd *
and done this | evil in | thy sight:
that thou mightest be justified in thy saying *
and | clear when | thou art | judg'd.
- 5 Behold I was | shapen in | wicked-ness:
and in sin | hath my | mother con | ceiv'd me.
- 6 But lo thou requirest truth in the | in-ward | parts—:
and shalt make me to | under-stand | wis-dom | secretly.
- 7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop and | I shall | be clean:
thou shalt wash me and I | shall be | whiter than | snow.
- 8 Thou shalt make me hear of | joy and | glad-ness:
that the bones which thou hast | brok-en | may re | joice.
- 9 Turn thy | face from | my sins:
and put | out all | my mis | deeds.
- 10 Make me a clean | heart O | God—:
and renew a | right spi | rit with | in me.
- 11 Cast me not away | from thy | pre-sence:
and take not thy | ho-ly | Spi-rit | from me.
- 12 O give me the comfort of thy help again *
and stablish me with | thy free | Spi-rit.
- 13 Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked *
and sinners shall be con | vert-ed | un-to | thee.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5.5–10

Read by Miranda Savage

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, ‘You are my Son, today I have begotten you’; as he says also in another place, ‘You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.’ In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading: John 12.20–33

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, ‘Sir, we wish to see Jesus.’ Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, ‘The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour. ‘Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—“Father, save me from this hour”? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.’ Then a voice came from heaven, ‘I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.’ The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, ‘An angel has spoken to him.’ Jesus answered, ‘This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgement of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.’ He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Prayers of Intercession

Led by Janet Gower

Communion Sentence (mode v)

Qui mihi ministrat, me sequitur: et ubi ego sum, illic et minister meus erit.

If a man would serve me, let him follow me; wherever I am, my servant will be there too.

Organ Music During Communion

Jesu Kreuz, Leiden und Pein – Petr Eben (1929-2007)

Communion Motet

Panis angelicus – César Franck (1822-1890)

Panis angelicus fit panis hominum.

The bread of angels becomes the bread of men.

Dat panis coelicus figuris terminum.

The heavenly bread ends all symbols.

O res mirabilis! Manducat Dominum

O wonderful thing! The Lord will nourish

Pauper servus et humilis.

The poor and humble
servant.

Fr Sam's Leaving Party & Gift

As a parish, we will be catering for Fr Sam's leaving party next Sunday
24 March at the Hall of Remembrance
following the 11.00am service at Christ Church.

The parish will provide drinks for the occasion, but we are asking parishioners to help us by supplying the following please:

- * 24 Ham Sandwiches
- * 24 Cheese Sandwiches
- * 24 Egg Mayo Sandwiches
- * 24 Coronation Chicken Sandwiches
- * Savoury snacks, sausage rolls, crudité & dips
- * 24 Ham & Cheese Sandwiches
- * 24 Tuna Sandwiches
- * 24 Cucumber Sandwiches

We estimate that you can make 12 sandwiches from one normal loaf of sliced bread. If, however, you would prefer to purchase and bring a platter of sandwiches, that would be fine.

In addition, we need your help in supplying a selection of:

- * Cakes (whole cakes or cupcakes)
- * Brownies
- * Other sweet treats

Kindly email John McVeigh (johnmcveigh@chelseaparish.org) by Thursday 21 March with an indication of what you can bring.

Please drop off donations at the back of St Luke's before the 10.30am service or at the Hall of Remembrance on the way to Christ Church.

There's still time to donate to Sam's leaving gift by bank transfer.

Thank You to One of Our 200th Anniversary Guest Preachers

We thank the Revd Canon Dr Jeremy Morris for being with us today here at St Luke's. He is National Adviser for Ecumenical Relations for the Church of England and previously was Dean of King's College, Cambridge, and Master of Trinity Hall.

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday

The service for Palm Sunday will begin at 10.30am at St Luke's and then worshippers will process in silence with the donkey to Christ Church. Afterwards, please join us for Fr Sam's leaving party at the Hall of Remembrance. Then at 6.30pm at St Luke's there will be a service of Music and Readings for Holy Week.

Kirklands Swim 30K for Mind

During March, Julie, Millie and Tilly Kirkland from the parish are each swimming 10K for Mind Charity. As a family that has in several ways suffered with mental health, they have been spurred to raise money for Mind, a mental health charity. With the lack of funding for the NHS, Mind is a great alternative resource that helps thousands. To donate: <https://tinyurl.com/3v5wyvbd>

Celebration of the Life of Sook Chae - Monday 18 March
