Weddings at St Luke's and Christ Church

Welcome and congratulations! We are delighted you would like to celebrate your wedding at St Luke's or Christ Church. We will do all we can to ensure your wedding day is a very happy one and that your marriage begins on the firmest of foundations.

When you get married in church, you'll find a supportive community there for you. You will get to know the Officiating Priest and your wedding will therefore be a personal and meaningful event. You are invited to a marriage preparation event, and we encourage you to attend church regularly in the run up to your wedding and especially to hear your banns being called.

Weddings can be big or small – all are joyful occasions for us as a church.

FAQs: Important questions about getting married at St Luke's or Christ Church

Please note – bookings for weddings, are provisional until the wedding meeting with the clergy has taken place. We strongly recommend that you do not book venues or other professionals until after the meeting.

1. What form of Service should we have?

Three forms of Marriage Service are authorised by the Church of England: the 1662 Book of Common Prayer, the Alternative Service: Series 1, and the 2000 Common Worship service https://www.churchofengland.org/life-events/your-church-wedding/planning-your-ceremony/wedding-ceremony-words

The first two are written in an older form of English, and the difference between them and the last is not just the language used but, more importantly, in the emphasis of what marriage is for. Some people are attracted by the 'old' language of the first two options, but it is worth reading the words of those services carefully, as their understanding of marriage does not fit easily with modern understandings. By contrast, the 2001 Service is based on the relationship of love between the couple, and it is the one we recommend. Whether the words are old or modern, the service will be conducted with beauty, dignity and warmth.

2. Do we need to have an Order of Service sheet?

Yes, but the printing need not be of the expensive kind: if you wish, you can simply issue a photocopied sheet. A sample is available to download. The Order of Service includes details of the music and readings as well as words of hymns and any prayers that the congregation will say. Words and the number of verses of hymns can vary enormously so please be careful of versions downloaded from the internet as they may be set to match different tunes. We can email you the words of hymns. Of your two readings, at least one must be from the Bible. The website https://www.churchofengland.org/life-events/your-church-wedding/planning-your-ceremony provides lots of tips to help you plan your service. Do please remember to print extra copies for choir, organist and clergy. The final details of the service must be agreed with the Officiating Priest in good time, at least two weeks before the service.
You may choose your own printers, but those listed below regularly do weddings, memorial services, etc. at St Luke's and Christ Church.

3. Who will be taking our service?

There are several clergy who conduct weddings. About three months before the wedding, the clergy will decide who will be taking each wedding and we will then let you know. The clergy generally take weddings in turn depending on other demands in their diaries. Any requests to involved visiting clergy will be subject to "safe to receive" checks. We are an inclusive church, and so invited clergy need to be made aware of this and be comfortable with our ethos.

4. Does the bride have to be 'given away'? If so, must it be done by her father?

The answer is no, it isn't necessary for anyone to give the bride away, unless that is what you desire. Sometimes a member of the family walks down the aisle with the bride; some couples these days meet one another just inside the entrance of the church and walk down the aisle together.

5. Should we have ushers?

Ushers are needed to hand out service sheets and any buttonholes, to show people to their seats and generally to look after people. After the service they are needed to check that no cameras and other belongings have been left behind in the pews and also to clear any rubbish (service sheets, tissues, water bottles etc) so please bring a bin bag! Ushers also need to ensure that all guests have vacated the church and its grounds no more than 45 minutes after the end of the service unless otherwise agreed with the Parish Office.

6. Does our marriage have to be witnessed?

Yes, by two people who are over the age of 18 and who understand English. Being present at the service, they sign the Marriage Document along with the bride, the groom and the officiating priest. Please note, the bride must sign in her maiden name. The church will provide a pen using the correct ink. Please do not remove this pen.

7. Can we have the church bells rung?

At the moment there is no provision for bell ringing at either church.

8. Can we have an organist and/or a choir?

Yes. Again, please let us know at least 3 months in advance. We have church organists who need to be booked with good notice. A choir is not essential but can help lead the singing of the hymns, as well as singing an anthem (if you want one) during the registration of the marriage.

9. Can we have flowers?

Yes. Flowers MUST be arranged by one of the following florists:
Sarah Phillipps – 07881 520933 sarahphillippsflowers@googlemail.com
Amanda Austin Flowers Ltd - 020 7351 3151 – 490a King's Road, Chelsea SW10 0LF www.amandaaustinflowers.co.uk
Sophie Hanna Flowers Ltd – 020 7720 0841- Arch 48, New Covent Garden, Vauxhall, SW8 5PP. 07973 814886 sophie@sophiehannaflowers.com – www.sophiehannaflowers.com
Mary Jane Vaughan Designs 020 7385 8400 - 6G Hewlett House, 5 Havelock Terrace, SW8 4AS maryjane@maryjanevaughan.co.uk - www.maryjanevaughan.co.uk
Joan Holdsworth – 020 7351 5932 – 10 Christchurch Terrace, SW3 4AJ (Christ Church only)

When you have chosen your florist please let the parish office know so that we can liaise with them regarding access to the church.

10. Will there be a rehearsal before our wedding day?

Yes, usually during the same week of the wedding. Generally speaking, only the bride and groom need to be present.

11. Café Portico

We have a café on site at the church which is open till 4pm every day. If you wish the café to be closed during your ceremony there is a fee of £800. If you choose not to close the café please be respectful of those using the café and those working there. Tables can only be used by those using the café.

12. When should the bride, groom and ushers arrive?

The bridegroom and best man should arrive at least twenty minutes before the service. The ushers should also arrive at least thirty minutes before the service to give out service sheets. While it is traditional for the bride's party to sit on the left and the groom's on the right, this does not have to be the case; it is usually easier to have everyone sitting together. The bride and bridesmaids, page boys etc. should arrive no later than five minutes before the service. This gives time for photos to be taken on arrival and to have a quiet moment in the porch to calm last minute nerves! If you are using cars between home and church, please check whether there are any additional hazards - such as Chelsea football teams playing at home.

13. Can photographs be taken during the marriage service?

No. This is a very special and sacred moment in your lives and photography is distracting. Your guests will be reminded before the service starts not to use their mobile phones or cameras. Your official photographer must speak to the clergy half an hour before the service to agree where photographs are allowed. There will be an opportunity for informal pictures and brief, formal poses after the registration of the marriage. Once the Service is over, photographs can be taken of you leaving the church and, of course, outside.

14. Are we allowed to have the service recorded by video camera or mobile phone?

Yes, but bear in mind that the fee doubles for all musicians (Director of Music, organist and choir). The video recordist should arrive in good time before the wedding so he or she can discuss with the clergy the best place to stand. Mobile video is not permitted. There is no access to the galleries for photos or videos.

15. How long will the church service last?

Usually between 40 and 45 minutes, depending on how many readings and hymns you have. Great care is taken over the timing of services so it is extremely important that you arrive on time. Bell ringers, musicians and clergy often have other engagements to get to after the service so, if you are late, it may mean reducing part of the service. If you are over 30 minutes late we cannot guarantee that your service will have all the people present that you have booked, except for the member of clergy.

16. Can our guests throw confetti?

We are an eco-church so confetti must be biodegradable. Confetti must be thrown outside and well away from the church doorways.

17. Is there room for parking?

St Luke's
There is no parking available in the churchyard. Wedding cars, taxis etc can drop off in the turning circle. If you have disabled guests, please let us know so we can help with access. The nearest Underground stations are Sloane Square and South Kensington. Bus routes 49 and 211 stop outside the church.

Christ Church
Parking in the surrounding streets is very restricted. Parking restrictions finish on Saturdays at 1.30 pm around the church but not from halfway to the Kings Road. The nearest Underground stations are Sloane Square and South Kensington. Bus routes 11, 19, 22, 49, 211 & 319 all go near the church. Limited on-street parking is available on meters in the vicinity.

18. When will we receive our marriage certificate?

In the week after the wedding we will return to the local Register Office (at Chelsea Town Hall) the Marriage Document that you signed on your wedding day. You can then obtain as many marriage certificates as you like from that Register Office. Certificates are A4 size and portrait. If at any point in the future you need a duplicate certificate, this can be obtained from the local Register Office.

Please think carefully if you plan to go away on honeymoon after your wedding to a country that may require evidence of marriage to allow you, for example, to stay in the same hotel room. We will be able to issue you an 'Acknowledgement of Marriage' certificate, but this has no legal value and may not be regarded as evidence of marriage. You may wish to delay holidaying in such a country until you have your marriage certificate.

19 Has our day happened unless we share it on social media?

We also love to see your photos from the day – if you are sharing on social media, please tag us on Instagram or Twitter @stlukesandchristchurchchelsea; please feel free to encourage your wedding photographer to do the same.

Qualifying to be married at St Luke's or Christ Church

Do we have to be baptised or confirmed to get married in the Church of England?
No, although we are always willing to discuss the possibility of baptism and/or confirmation with anyone who wants to learn more about the Christian faith.

How can we qualify to get married at St Luke's or Christ Church?
There are various ways in which you can qualify, as set down by law.

Banns

If either of you live in the parish you are entitled by law to be married at either church by Banns. Banns are the announcement during the church service during three successive Sundays of your intention to get married. They are designed to give you the chance to think over your choice, and to give the community an opportunity to object to your marriage on legal grounds.

If only one of you lives in the parish and your partner lives in another parish, you can get married here, but your banns have to be called both here and in the parish where your partner lives. It's your responsibility to make sure that your banns are called in the parish where you live. To prove that your banns have been called in the other parish, we will ask you to give us a Banns Certificate, which you can get from the priest of that parish. This needs to be given to us a fortnight before your wedding.

You can find out which parish you live in by going to www.achurchnearyou.com.

If you don't live in the parish

If neither of you lives in the parish, you can still qualify to get married by banns if either of you has a qualifying historical connection with the parish (which is explained below) or you qualify to go onto the electoral roll by attending public worship at either St Luke's or Christ Church regularly for at least six months. After the six months has elapsed, you can complete an electoral roll form and return it to our Parish Office to get onto the electoral roll. Your request will then be published in church and placed before the next PCC (Parish Church Council) meeting.

Qualifying Historical Connection

A person has a Qualifying Connection with a parish if that person:

- was baptised in the parish (this does not apply where the baptism formed part of a combined service of baptism or confirmation); or
- had his or her confirmation entered in a church register book of a church or chapel in the parish; or
- has at any time had his or her usual place of residence in the parish for at least six months; or
- has at any time habitually attended public worship in the parish for at least six months.

or

- a parent of that person has at any time during that person's lifetime had his or her usual place of residence in the parish for at least six months; or habitually attended public worship in the parish for at least six months;

or

- a parent or grandparent of that person was married in the parish.

Evidence of any such connection will need to be produced to a member of the clergy.

If one or both of you has been divorced

The clergy will want to discuss with you how the previous marriage went wrong and the needs and concerns of any children from a previous marriage or relationship. If the clergy are happy to marry you then you can be married by banns under the same qualifying conditions as above. We will need to see a certified copy of your Decree Absolute or Final Order.

If you are not members of the Church of England

People of all denominations have the right to be married in their parish church. If one of you belongs to another faith, which is not Christian, then it may still be possible for you to get married at St Luke's or Christ Church but you must have the normal Christian service.

If one or both of you do not have British citizenship

If one or both of the applicants is not a British citizen, then the preliminaries prior to marriage in church are a little different:
Please see https://www.churchofengland.org/life-events/your-church-wedding/just-engaged/information-foreign-nationals for up-to-date information.

Common licence

A Common Licence is needed when one or more of these situations apply to you:

- Your wedding date is too soon to allow enough time for banns to be read.
- One or both of you are British but live abroad.
- One or both of you live in the UK, but your home is not in England or Wales.
- Your home address is likely to change during the time when banns would normally be read out.

Recessional Music

Wedding music

Music is always a matter of personal taste. We are keen to help you choose music that is right for your wedding. Whether you decide that the music should be simple, or more elaborate, the choice of hymns and other pieces are very much up to you in consultation with the Director of Music and clergy. If you have no idea what you want or are totally confused by what is available, we can suggest suitable pieces.

- Before the service starts, the organist will play between ten and twenty minutes of music as the guests arrive. Please let us know if there is something you would particularly like to be played at this point.
- We recommend that you choose a short processional piece for the entry of the bride and something suitably happy and jolly for when you leave the church.
- You might also like to choose music to be played or sung during the registration of the marriage – a piece lasting about four or five minutes is usually enough.
- There are other places in the service where further anthems or solo pieces can be included. The Director of Music and clergy will be happy to discuss these with you.
- We include in this pack a list of hymns often used at weddings for you to look at and consider as well as suggestions for music during the registration of the marriage.

Music for your wedding is co-ordinated at each church by the Director of Music at that church: at St Luke's by the Director of Music, Jeremy Summerly, and at Christ Church by Gareth Wilson. As part of your wedding preparation, you will be given a consultation at the church to discuss music choices. You are encouraged to bring suggestions to this meeting, and they will also be able to suggest options which they can play in the church so you can get some idea of how they would sound on the day. You do not necessarily have to choose traditional pieces for your wedding, although these are 'tried and tested' and work very well in the church building. We are very happy to accommodate other choices, wherever possible, and the Director of Music will be able to advise on their suitability. It is very helpful if you can contact the Director of Music before the meeting with your suggestions so that he can listen to them in advance.

The Musicians

The number of musicians that you have performing for your wedding will depend very much on the music which you choose, the size of the event and your budget. It is always possible to find low-cost options which will work beautifully in the space.

- An organist is required to play the entry and exit pieces, accompany hymns and any other musical items. If you want your own organist to play (rather than ours) the full organist's fee is still payable to St Luke's and Christ Church PCC. Your choice of organist is subject to the approval of the Director of Music.
- In most cases, a conductor is required to direct the choir. Where there is no choir or where the music is simple, it is not always necessary to have a conductor. This is decided at the discretion of the Director of Music.
- A choir is often employed to lead the hymn-singing and to perform choral works at the registration of the marriage and/or at other points in the service. The church uses fine professional singers who are selected by the Director of Music. (Please note that at St Luke's the regular church choir, which consists of a group of amateur singers, is not available for weddings). A minimum of four singers is needed in the choir and, for most services, between 8 and 12 singers are sufficient. The number needed will depend on the type of music which you would like at the wedding and on your budget.

- If you would like some solo music to be sung/played at your wedding, you will need a soloist. The soloist can often be drawn from the choir, although that singer will need to be paid a soloist's fee.

The Director of Music will find and co-ordinate musicians for your wedding, source music where necessary, and organise rehearsal time. You may have a friend or family member whom you would like to have perform at your wedding, and we are happy to accommodate this where possible. Please ask the Director of Music about this at your consultation.

Above all, enjoy choosing your wedding music. Don't be shy of having something that is well known or very different. We are here to help and to make sure your music enriches your wedding service. Do please ask us for any help you may need.

Please note that, if you would like to make an audio recording of your wedding service, the musicians' fees are increased by 50%. For videos, the fees are increased by 100%.

Notes for Florists

Flowers must be arranged by one of the florists on the above list (see 'Florists and Printers').

1. Please liaise in good time for access to the church by contacting the Parish Office on 020 7351 7365 or email parishoffice@chelseaparish.org
2. It is assumed that unless otherwise arranged, the flowers will remain in church for the following Sunday. However, in Advent and Lent, all flowers must be removed before the Sunday.
3. No flowers or extra candles are to be placed on the altar, the font or the pulpit.
4. Please ensure that aisles and passageways are not blocked and that those parts of the church used for the service are not obscured by flowers.
5. If the chancel walls at St Luke's are decorated, please do not let water spill on the stonework, and make sure that access to the lectern is not obstructed. Our troughs must be used. Flowers at this point need to be kept low so that the bride and groom can be seen at the altar.
6. No drawing pins are to be used
7. If candelabra are used, suitable matting must be placed underneath to prevent wax damaging the floors.
8. Do not attach anything inside or outside the churches that will damage their fabric in any way.

Readings

There is a space in the wedding service for two readings. At least one must be from the Bible. Couples can choose whether to have two readings from the Bible, or one biblical reading and one non-biblical. Here are some suggestions.

OLD TESTAMENT AND APOCRYPHA

Genesis 1.26-28

Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.' So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.'

Song of Solomon 2.10-13, 8.6-7

My beloved speaks and says to me:
'Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away;
for now the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land.
The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom;
they give forth fragrance.
Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.'
Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm;
for love is strong as death, passion fierce as the grave.

Its flashes are flashes of fire, a raging flame.
Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it.
If one offered for love all the wealth of one's house, it would be utterly scorned.

Jeremiah 31.31-34
The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt – a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, 'Know the Lord,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Tobit 8.4-8
When the parents had gone out and shut the door of the room, Tobias got out of bed and said to Sarah, 'Sister, get up, and let us pray and implore our Lord that he grant us mercy and safety.' So she got up, and they began to pray and implore that they might be kept safe. Tobias began by saying:

'Blessed are you, O God of our ancestors, and blessed is your name in all generations for ever.
Let the heavens and the whole creation bless you for ever.
You made Adam, and for him you made his wife Eve as a helper and support.
From the two of them the human race has sprung.
You said, "It is not good that the man should be alone;
let us make a helper for him like himself."
I now am taking this kinswoman of mine, not because of lust, but with sincerity.
Grant that she and I may find mercy and that we may grow old together.'
And they both said, 'Amen, amen.'

NEW TESTAMENT

Matthew 5: 1-10
When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and he taught them, saying:

'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst in the cause of righteousness, for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven'.

Mark 10: 6-9, 13-16
Jesus said, 'From the beginning of creation, "God made them male and female." "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.'

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

John 2: 1-14
On the third day, there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine'. And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come'. His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'
Now, standing nearby, there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it.
When the steward had tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (although the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.'
Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

John 15: 1-8
Jesus said to his disciples, 'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine-grower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.'

John 15: 9-12 (and possibly verses 16-17 also)
Jesus said to his disciples, 'As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and I abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.
You may also wish to read verses 16-17: 'You did not choose me, I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last; so that my Father may give you whatever you ask in my name. This is my commandment to you: love one another.

Romans 8.31-35, 37-39
What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who dies, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 12.1-2, 9-13

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God – what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

1 Corinthians 13

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong, or a clanging cymbal.
And if I have prophetic powers,
and understand all mysteries and all knowledge,
and if I have faith so as to remove mountains,
but do not have love, I am nothing.
If I give away all my possessions,
and if I hand over my body to be burned,
but do not have love, I gain nothing.
Love is patient; love is kind.
Love is not envious, or boastful or arrogant or rude.
It does not insist on its own way;
it is not irritable or resentful.
It does not rejoice in wrongdoing,
but rejoices in the truth.
It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never ends.
But as for prophecies, they will come to an end.
As for tongues, they will cease;
as for knowledge, it will come to an end.
So faith, hope, love abide, these three;
and the greatest of these is love.

Colossians 3: 12-17

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another; and if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts, sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Philippians 4: 4-9
Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received, and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

1 John 3: 18-24
Little children, let us love in deed and in truth, and not merely talk about it. This is our way of knowing we are committed to the truth, and are at peace before him, no matter what our consciences may charge us with; for God is greater than our hearts and all is known to him. Beloved, if our consciences have nothing to charge us with, we can be sure of this; that God is with us and that we will receive at his hands whatever we ask. Why? Because we are keeping his commandments, and doing what is pleasing in his sight.
His commandment is this: we are to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and we are to love one another as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him and he in them. And this is how we know that he remains in us: from the Spirit that he gave us.

1 John 4: 7-12
Beloved, let us love one another because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten of God and has knowledge of God. The one without love has known nothing of God, for God is love. God's love was revealed in our midst in this way: he sent his only Son to the world, so that we might have life through him. Love, then, consists in this: not that we have loved God, but that he has loved us, and has sent his Son as an offering for our sins. Beloved, if God has loved us so, we must have the same love for one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet if we love one another God dwells in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us.

NON-SCRIPTURAL READING SUGGESTIONS

A good source of ideas for non-scriptural readings is Mark Oakley, Readings for Weddings, (SPCK, 2004), which is available cheaply second-hand online.

Ancient Sanskrit
Look well to this day for it is life, the very best of life.
In its brief course lie all the realities and truth of existence:
the joy of growth, the splendour of action, the glory of power.
For yesterday is but a memory, and tomorrow is only a vision;
but today, if well lived, makes every yesterday a memory of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope. Look well, therefore, to this day.

A Reading from The Prophet by Kahil Gibran 'On Marriage'
Then Almitra spoke again and said,
'And what of marriage, master?'
And he answered saying:
'You were born together,
and together you shall be, for evermore.
You shall be together when the white wings of death scatter your days.

Aye, you shall be together even in the silent memory of God.
But let there be spaces in your togetherness.
And let the winds of the heavens dance between you.
Love one another, but make not a bond of love:
Let it rather be a moving sea between the shores of your souls.
Fill each other's cup but drink not from the one cup.
Give one another of your bread but eat not from the same loaf.
Sing and dance together and be joyous,
but let each one of you be alone.
Even as the strings of a lute are alone,
though they quiver with the same music.
Give your hearts, but not into each other's keeping.
For only the hand of Life can contain your hearts.
And stand together - yet not too near together, for the pillars of the temple stand apart, and the oak tree and the cypress grow not in each other's shadow.

A Reading from The Prophet by Kahil Gibran 'On Friendship'
Your friend is your needs answered.
She* is your field which you sow with love,
and reap with thanksgiving.
And she is your board and your fireside.
For you come to her with your hunger, and you seek her for peace.
When your friend speaks her mind,
you fear not the 'nay' in your own mind,
nor do you withhold the 'ay'.
And when she is silent your heart ceases not to listen to her heart;
for even without words,
in friendship, all thoughts, all desires,
all expectations are born and shared with joy that is unclaimed.
When you part from your friend, you grieve not;
for that which you love most in her may be clearer in her absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.
And let there be no purpose in friendship save the deepening of the spirit.
For love that seeks aught but the disclosure of its own mystery, is not love, but a net cast forth: and only the unprofitable is caught.
And let your best be for your friend.
If she must know the ebb of your tide, let her know its flood also.
For what is your friend that you should seek her with hours to kill?
Seek her always with hours to live.
For it is hers to fill your need, but not your emptiness.
And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures.
For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

Marriage Preparation

A wedding lasts a day, but a marriage is for life. Whether you have been a couple for 10 months or 10 years, you will know that relationships need care and attention so that they can continue to deepen and flourish as you face new challenges and stages of life together. Your engagement is an excellent opportunity to take stock and to consider what it will take to sustain and enjoy a long and happy marriage.

To help you with this, we will invite you to an evening with a two-course dinner, during which we offer brief input and give you time as a couple to reflect on something other than your wedding planning! We also give you a book that you may like to read together as a stimulus for discussion.
There are also ample further resources available. In terms of books, we recommend:

- Gary Chapman, The Five Love Languages
- John Gottman, The Relationship Cure: A 5 Step Guide to Strengthening Your Marriage, Family, and Friendships

YouTube has numerous excellent videos available, including many by these two authors.

It is highly possible that at some point as a couple you will reach an impasse over a particular issue, and want to reach out for an external voice. Marriage counsellors and mutually trusted friends are excellent options; the clergy of the parish are also very happy to offer counsel and support in whatever situation you are facing.
